IV. Extract of a Letter from Mr. Scarburgh, dated Acomack, July 14. 1694. Giving a Relation of the Effects of a violent Storm of the 19th of October, on the Rivers of that Country. Communicated by the Honourable Sir Robert Southwell, F. R. S.

UPON the 19th Day of October laſt happened a moſt violent Storm, which ſtopped the Courſe of ancient Channels, and made ſome where never were any: So that betwixt the Bounds of Virginia and New-Caſtle (in Penſylvania) on the Sea-bord ſide, are many Navigable Rivers for Sloops and ſmall Veſſels.

V. An Account of the Damage that hapned in the Iſle of Portland the Third of February, 169⅘. Communicated by the Honourable Sir Robert Southwell, F. R. S.

THE Great Peer is quite demoliſhed and filled up with Rubbiſh, and the Rocks that lay about 40 Yards off in the Sea at the Peer-head, are riſen above Water; ſo that there is no hopes of making good that Peer again. And the ways leading to that Peer from the Quarry, are turned upſide down, and
